Protest

Dear Editor: PM 2/9/44

I wish to vigorously protest the statement made concerning myself in your issue of Jan. 27 (page 16).

Your writer speaks of me as being a leader of the Peace Now movement. I am not a member nor do I intend becoming one. I had never heard of the organization until a few days before their Dec. 27 meeting in Carnegie Chamber Music Hall.

In good faith I gave them the use of my song We Want Peace, published nine years ago (1935).

I think my record of service in World War No. I (enlisted), in which I served for two years (1917-1919) in Texas and France, is proof of my Americanism.
